

In a 5x5 square, all polyominoes with “width” and “height” less than 5 will fit without problems.

However, it is also possible to fit diagonally some polyominoes bigger than that. This only becomes possible starting at size 5.

The following 2 diagrams, produced by Talmon Silver, illustrate the concept.

